Dear Educator,

Thank you for your interest in groundwater education materials. Whether you are a teacher looking for classroom teaching materials, a naturalist or other non-traditional educator, or an interested individual seeking more information for yourself, I feel confident that you won't be disappointed in our award-winning "Groundwater Study Guide Packet."

In addition to this double-sided introduction and information page, each packet, includes:

- ◆ One 32-page "Groundwater Study Guide" – PUB-DG-076 (2006).
- ◆ One set of 12 activity handouts (total of 23 double-sided sheets) to use with activities in the "Groundwater Study Guide".
- ◆ One copy of "Groundwater: Protecting Wisconsin's Buried Treasure" - PUBL DG 055 99.
- ◆ Ten small posters, "Groundwater and Land Use in the Water Cycle," to use as a reference during individual or small group activities.
- ◆ One large poster of the "Groundwater and Land Use in the Water Cycle" to use for large group activities or classroom reference.
- ◆ One "Groundwater Contamination Susceptibility in Wisconsin" map.
- ◆ One "Groundwater Models Available for Loan" list (2 pages).
- ◆ One copy of "Wisconsin Groundwater Directory".
- ◆ One copy of "Better Homes and Groundwater" – PUB-DG-070 2004.
- ◆ One "Water Resources Web Sites" list (1 page).

We encourage you to share this information with others. If you would like information on how to obtain additional packets, please contact the Bureau of Drinking Water and Groundwater at (608) 266-0821. You can also find much of this packet, including updates and additions, on the Department of Natural Resources Groundwater Education web site, <http://www.dnr.state.wi.us/org/water/dwg/gw/educate.htm>.

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Michael Lemcke
Groundwater Section Chief
